QUINTESSENTIAL BARRINGTON

LIFE AND LEISURE IN THE BARRINGTON AREA

Julie Gudvangen
Vice-President, Delta Renovations Inc.

Looking brand new. A referral from a neighbor brought Delta Renovations to this early 1990's home. The kitchen is the heart of this project with custom Amish-made cabinets topped with quartz counters and backsplash. New illumination patterns were designed for improved task and ambient lighting with bold fixtures anchoring the room in dramatic effect.

To compliment the kitchen remodel, the first and second floor trim went from golden oak to clean and crisp. All interior doors were replaced along with a new stair railing and treads. Wainscoting adorns the dining room and a beautiful re-design of the fireplace facade completes the millwork. Finishing the transformation, the first level flooring was re-stained bringing the interior of this home into the fashion of today.

As designer and owner of Delta Renovations, Julie Gudvangen's unique vision and construction experience provide the expertise our clients depend on and is the talent, heart and soul of team Delta.
