LIFE AND LEISURE IN THE BARRINGTON AREA

'As long as Delta is doing it, I'm not afraid of remodeling anymore.'

'Delta Renovations was great to work with from the beginning to the end. Joe and Julie were professional, knowledgeable and personal and so was their entire team and subcontractors. Joe even came on a Sunday addressing an unforeseen problem. The final product (kitchen, butler pantry, breakfast area and laundry room) exceeded our expectations. Another plus is their ability to meet deadlines and staying within budget.'

Although Renophobia is not actually defined in the dictionary, it is a common occurrence as renovation may invoke fearful thoughts of disruption to one's home and family life. The homeowners in this month's issue were no exception to the emotions when planning a remodel, until a neighbor recommended Delta Renovations.

At Delta Renovations Inc. we are keenly aware of the apprehension homeowners face. Specializing in project management, we connect the dots, deal with everything from changes to the scope of the project, to the 100-year rain and stressed family dog. The tools we use are a good support staff, excellent people and communication skills, and the select team of subcontractors employed.

We never take a client's trust lightly and work diligently to provide the highest degree of service and integrity. Our ultimate goal is to exceed expectations and get the single most valuable component, a referral.
